Japanese Made Much of Birthday of the Enlightened Mikado.

The Honolulu subjects of the Japanese Emperor observed their sovereign's birthday with appropriate formalities. It was a festival day, and all the Japanese banks, business houses and shops were closed. The local Japanese societies and churches assisted in doing honor to the Mikado. The children of the Grammar and Kindergarten schools assembled at the Japanese consulate, Nuuanu avenue, in the forenoon and were royally entertained by Hon. Miki Saito, the Japanese Consul. The Hawallan Band was in attendance. The consulate residence was attractively decorated in the Imperial colors, flags, lanterns and flowers, effectively arranged, giving a vivid coloring to the foreign representatives from 11 a. m. to l p. m. The Japanese Young Men's Club presided over the sports given during the afternoon held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. K.
